About Tahatū Career Navigator

Mō Tahatū Career Navigator

Tahatū is an interactive careers website that helps you figure out what kind of work you might like and how you can get there.

We've designed tahatu.govt.nz to provide inspiration and information to help you get into study, training and work, whether you already know what you want to do or you're not sure yet.

Tahatū also shows you how to get from where you are now in your career journey to where you want to be in the future.

Tahatū has helpful information for nearly 100 NCEA subjects, over 4,000 qualifications and courses and more than 800 career ideas.

You can also use tools like the Interest quiz to help you discover your top interests and explore work areas and career ideas that align to them.

How to apply for study or training Me pēhea te tono mō ngā akoranga, te whakangungu rānei

Updated 23 Jun 2024

Ready to sign up to study or training? Tino pai! There are a few steps you need to go through – just take them one at a time, you'll get there.

What you need to get into tertiary study Ngā mea me whai koe kia uru ai ki ngā akoranga mātauranga matua

Tertiary study programmes have different entry requirements depending on the subject and qualification level. Education providers sometimes have different entry requirements for the same qualification.

Tertiary qualifications can start at Level 3 or 4. You can apply to study for them at a division of Te Pūkenga, wānanga, university or private training establishment.

If you want to get a degree, you might need to have University Entrance (UE) by the time you start studying. Your record of achievement will say if you have University Entrance.

You can apply for entry before you have your final results or University Entrance.
