

Rangatahi Futures

Tō tātou wāhi ki te ōhanga Our place in the economy

12 Tōku maunga Climbing my mountain

Review: The Māori economy today

- What do Māori businesses and the economy have to do with my career choices?

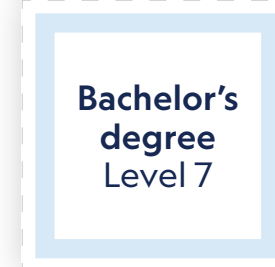

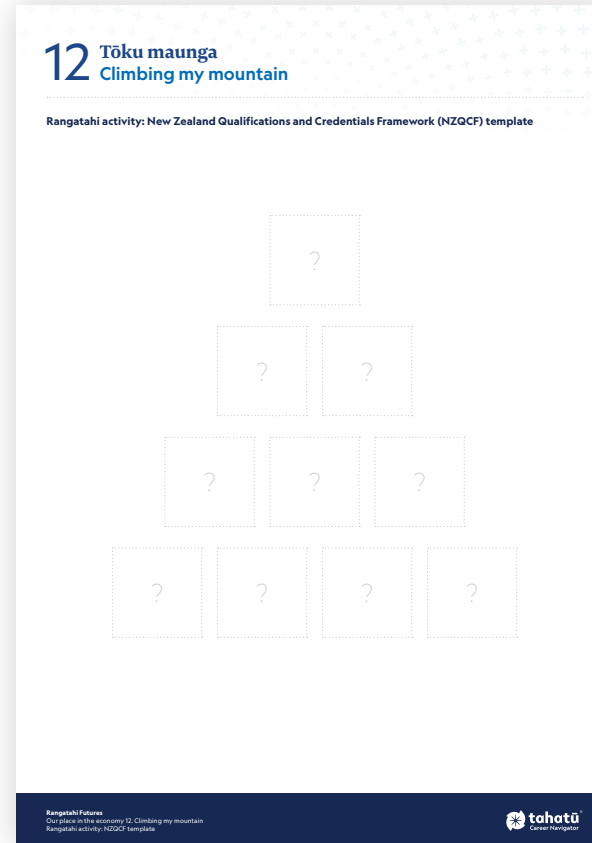

You and the New Zealand economy

Discuss the following statements:

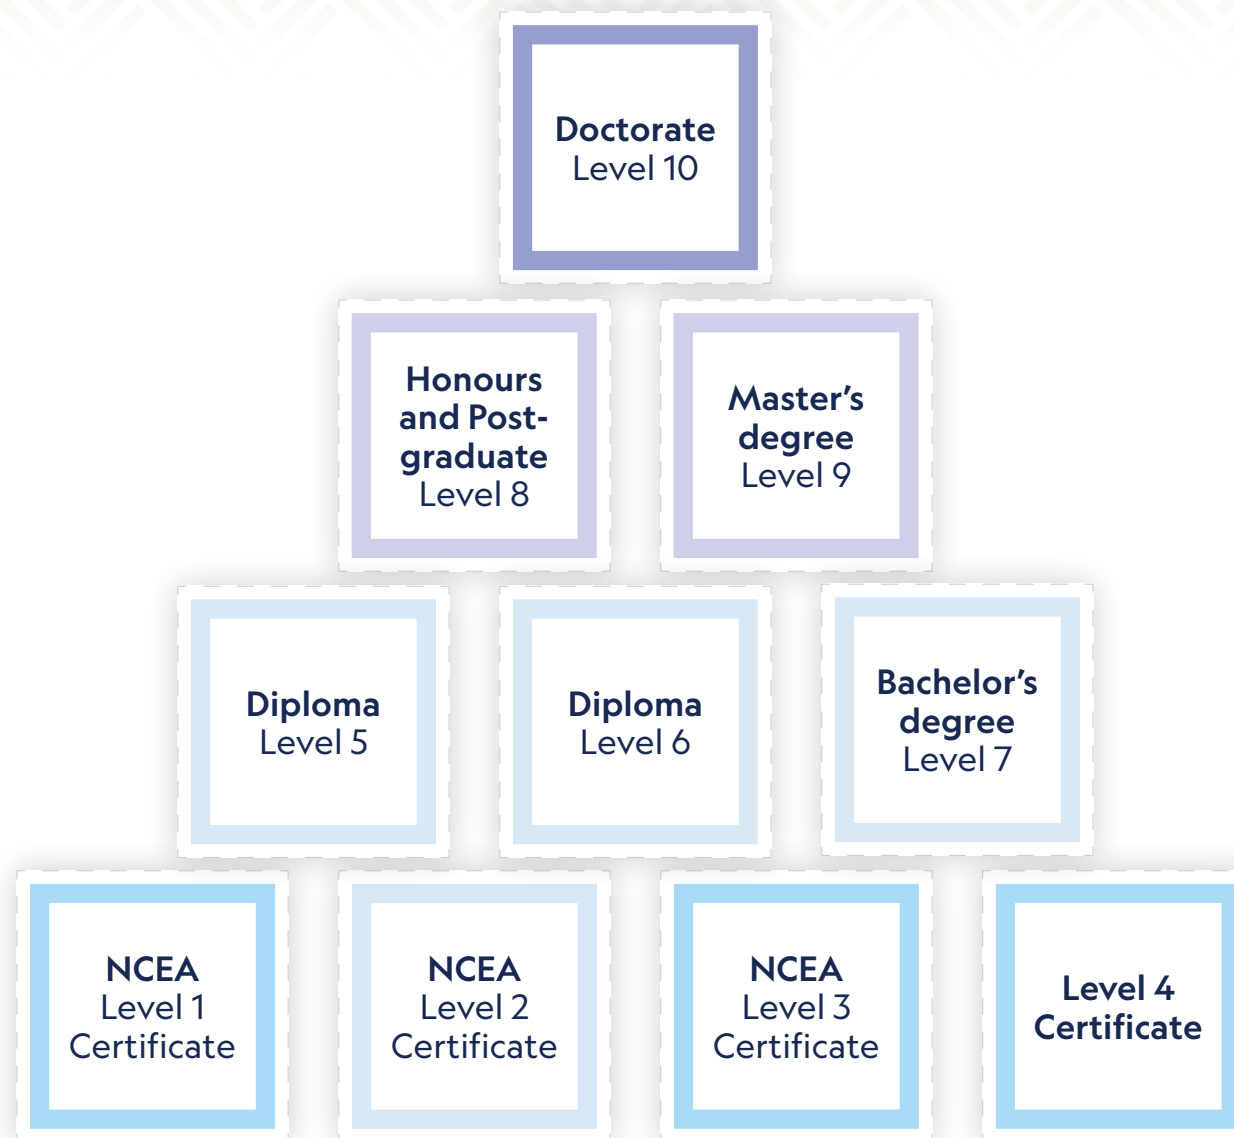

- You are part of the New Zealand economy.
- The choices you make about study, training and work will help shape your economic future and that of your whānau.
- Each of you has the talent and capability to make a valuable contribution to Māori businesses and the New Zealand economy.
- You are the future of the New Zealand economy.

NZQCF cards activity

- NCEA Level 1 is the first step on a qualifications stairway up to Level 10.
- Use the template and the NZQCF cards.
- Work together to build the pyramid by putting each card in the right place on the framework.
- Make sure every card goes in the level you think it belongs to.
- Understanding NZ qualifications – NZQA and the NZQCF.

New Zealand Qualifications and Credentials Framework – 1

Qualification cards activity

1. Use the template and qualification cards.
2. Build a second pyramid by placing each qualification in the right position.

New Zealand Qualifications and Credentials Framework – 2

Explore Tahatū: Doing study or training

- Go to Tahatū Career Navigator Explore study and training for information on training and qualifications.
- Complete the Exploring pathways activity.
- Match the study or training organisations to the right explanations and answer the questions.
- Types of study and training providers
- Doing study or training

Completing the Whenua career action plan

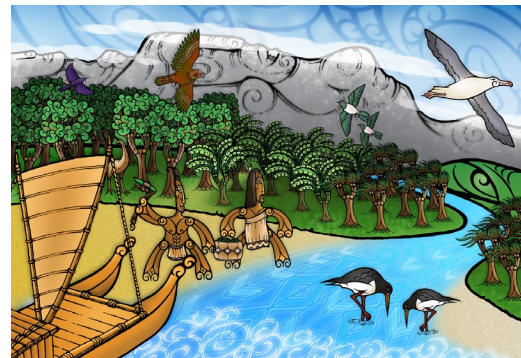

8 Ngā pakihi o mua Early enterprise

Rangatahi activity: Whenua career action plan

Iwi Tribe

Kei hea koe e noho ana?
Where do you live?

Ingoa Name

Rangatahi Futures

Our place in the economy 8. Early enterprise, 9. Our economy,
10. Māori business owners, 11. Making connections, 12. Climbing my mountain
Rangatahi activity: Whenua career action plan

Ka whati te tai,
ka pao te tōrea.

When the tide ebbs the pied oyster catcher strikes.

Section one Te waonui a Tāne – being open to new experiences

How can trying something new help you achieve your career goals? List three new things you would like to do.

Section three Te waka – identifying support for your journey

Who can help you find out more about the career pathways you are interested in? Name one new person you will have a conversation with about your future career goals.

Section two Te awa – forging new pathways

Describe something that interested you about the Māori businesses you learned about today.
What are your career goals for the future?

Section four Te maunga – realising your potential

What do you need to do to achieve your career goals?

What support do you need to achieve your
career goals?

What options would help you achieve your
career goals?

Rangatahi Futures

Our place in the economy 12. Climbing my mountain
Kaiārahi PowerPoint 12

Making the most of opportunities

Ka whati te tai
ka pao te tōrea.

When the tide ebbs
the pied oystercatcher strikes.

What is your plan for action?

